Profile

Daniel is an experienced commercial litigator. He regularly appears in the Supreme Court of Victoria, Federal Court, County Court of Victoria, the Courts of Appeal, and the Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal. He has a diverse private and public law practice, acting for a wide range of clients. He works collaboratively with solicitors, receiving briefs from the largest and smallest of law firms in Australia and New Zealand and direct briefs from in-house counsel.

He is a qualified mediator and has extensive experience in settling complex cases. Daniel also has experience in a wide variety of complex interlocutory matters, assisting clients at all stages of the litigation process.

His particular areas of expertise are in competition and consumer law, property and proprietary estoppel, trusts, commercial contracts, restraints of trade, directors' duties and partnerships. Daniel is ranked in Australia's Best Lawyers for Competition Law (2018 to 2024), Commercial Law (2020 to 2024) and Litigation (2024).

He also actively practises in a wide range of other commercial matters, including corporations, insolvency, telecommunications, professional negligence and corporate governance, administrative law and local government.

Prior to signing the Bar Roll in 2004, Daniel was a Senior Associate in the Competition Group of Allens Linklaters in Melbourne and a director in the Telecommunications Group of the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission. He was Associate to the former Chief Justice of the High Court of Australia, Sir Gerard Brennan.

Daniel is the author of Competition Law - The Laws of Australia (2014 Thomson Reuters). He is currently author and editor of Competition Law (Laws of Australia) and was previously author and editor of Restraints of Trade (Laws of Australia). He has published several refereed articles in the areas of competition law, international trade law, law and economics, consumer protection and unconscionability.

He has Honours in Economics at Monash University, Master of Laws with first class honours at the University of Melbourne, and Master of Laws (Kent Scholar) at Columbia University Law School, New York. He was an Assistant Lecturer in Economics at Monash University. At the Law School of the University of Melbourne, he co-lectured Economics for Competition Lawyers in the Masters program and lectured Legal Theory in the Juris Doctor program.

Daniel was the Chair of the Competition and Consumer Law Section of the Commercial Bar Association of Victoria from 2019 to 2022. He is the Principal Examiner for Specialist Accreditation for Commercial Litigation for the Law Institute of Victoria. He is also a member of the Competition and Consumer Law Committee of the Business Law Section of the Law Council of Australia, and a member of the Ethics Committee of the Peter MacCallum Cancer Centre.
